

TRADITIONAL IS OVERRATED

A celebration on the storied grounds of this former brothel and saloon make it unlike any other venue in the southwest. A twist on the traditional B&B concept, Painted Lady Bed & Brew is the first of its kind in New Mexico and one of only a handful of such unique establishments in the country (featured in The 25 places you need to travel in 2020 by Matador Network, The New York Times, Travel Channel and more). Built in 1881 as a brothel and saloon with "wine room in connection," the property has quite the colorful past. Tales of buried money, hidden rooms, and Billy the Kid are all waiting inside.

As one guest remarked, "if these walls could talk...they'd moan!"

THE CASITA

Originally constructed in the early 1900s as a bakery (La Tienda de la Maquina de Rajar), this structure was across the street from the bustling American Lumber Company sawmill. This historic adobe “casita” was renovated in 2019-2021 to provide indoor event space and a brewing space for the Lady.

Features: Includes restroom, bar/tap room area, roll-up glass garage door providing easy access to The Brickyard. Comfortably accommodates 30 guests indoors (standing).

THE TROLLEY

The last of its kind in New Mexico, this vintage trolley car carried passengers and tourists from Downtown to Old Town toward the end of the 20th century. Enjoy our renovated 'AlbuRquerque' (the original, pre-1880 spelling of Albuquerque) trolley car for indoor seating and remarkable photos.

Features: Includes dark, tinted windows for privacy, historic ABQ photos throughout, warm lighting and seating for 13 passengers...er, guests.

THE SUITES

Dating back to 1881, these former brothel rooms (and saloon) have been transformed into bespoke accommodations for overnight guests. Completely renovated in 2014-2015 (and 2022), respectively, the apartment-style sleeping rooms of the Painted Lady now earn rave reviews from guests all over the world.

Features: Suites include private bedroom/bathroom, living room and private patio providing comfortable accommodations for up to 6 guests sleeping in 2 suites (Charlie, 1 bedroom & Lottie, 2 bedroom). View more information and photos at www.breakfastisoverrated.com/suites.

THE DOORS

These weathered doors were once located inside the former brothel. They now create an attractive backdrop for photos. Includes original Victorian hardware with skeleton keyhole, wedding arch constructed out of reclaimed latillas (wedding arch is easily customizable for flowers and other decorations) and lucky horseshoe overhead (unearthed during the 2014 renovation). The Doors are no longer available for a wedding ceremony.

ADD-ONS

BYOB!

Brew your own “Bride-Ale” with a Painted Lady Bed & Brew “brew master.” Throughout history, beer has a lot more to do with weddings than many of us might know. The word “bridal,” for example, actually comes from “Bride-Ale,” which refers to a special beer brewed just for the wedding. You will schedule a visit to the Lady approximately a month before your event to brew 10 gallons (approximately 96 pints) of beer. This beer will then be on tap at your event and available as a complimentary beverage for your guests!
